Headline:
A cloudy day on Thursday with occasional rain.

Today:
Thursday will start cool and cloudy with an occasional mainly light shower. Staying cloudy through the afternoon with further periods of mainly light rain. Turning dry by evening with brighter skies in the west. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud continuing to thin with long clear spells developing inland, perhaps the odd mist or fog patch developing in river valleys. Remaining cloudy near the coast. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Friday:
Bright at first but cloud will slowly increase through the morning as a band of locally heavy or thundery rain moves into the south from late morning into the afternoon. Maximum temperature 17 deg C (63 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Early rain clearing on Saturday but further showers are likely. Unsettled on Sunday and Monday with thundery showers, merging at times into longer spells of locally heavy rain.
